

No. AIMSTSR/DIR/Gen./19/2025/18

OFFICE ORDER

Subject: Constitution of the Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Cell

In alignment with the institution's commitment to promoting innovation, intellectual property awareness, and patent facilitation, an Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Cell is hereby constituted with immediate effect. The cell will function as a strategic body to guide, monitor, and facilitate all activities related to intellectual property at Amala Institute of Medical Sciences.

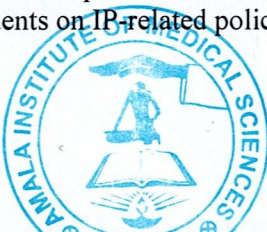

Composition of the Committee

| Sl. No | Name | Designation | Role |
|--------|----------------------------|--|-------------------|
| 1 | Fr. Antony Mannummel CMI | Associate Director | Ex-officio Member |
| 2 | Dr. Kayeen Vadakkan | Scientist – C, Amala Integrated Medical Research Department | Convenor |
| 3 | Dr. Deepti Ramakrishnan | Professor Department of Pathology | Member |
| 4 | Dr. Dijoe Davis | Associate Professor, Department of Orthopaedics, | Member |
| 5 | Dr Sindhu Vijayakumar | Associate Professor, Department of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation | Member |
| 6 | Dr. Boney Rajan | Associate Professor, Department of Pharmacology | Member |
| 7 | Adv. Phinergeev Alappatt V | Legal Advisor Amala Institute of Medical Sciences | Legal Expert |

Terms of Reference

- To promote awareness and education on Intellectual Property Rights among faculty and students.
- To identify and facilitate patentable innovations from the institution.
- To support filing, maintenance, and management of patents, copyrights, and other IP.
- To collaborate with external agencies for IP protection and commercialization.
- To guide and mentor faculty and students on IP-related policies, ethics, and best practices.

To:
Concerned Members

Director